

Workshop Information

Abhivyakti Media For Development

Name Of The Workshop	Content	Who Can Participate In This Workshop	Duration
Group Media Skills	This seven days workshop focuses on conceptual understanding of "Group Media". It creates opportunities to make and use the various forms of group media like, chalk talk, flash cards, flannel stories, stick puppets, finger puppets, glove puppets, masks and also learn about songs, theatre and posters.. It gives an opportunity to experience pre-testing of these group media in the community and understand the management of media resources in our own organisations.	Activists who are in regular dialogue with the constituency of the organization and engaged with the social development process since the last two years	Seven Days
Trainer's Effectiveness	This workshop aims at enhancing the understanding of the group learning process. The workshop's focus is on self assessment of one's present capacities of facilitation skills and providing inputs for strengthening one's competencies as a trainer facilitator-co-learner. The workshop would also equips the participants to design and facilitate need-based trainings in their own areas of intervention. Experiential learning, along with video feedback would be the methodology employed to enhance learning.	Middle level functionaries who have relevant experience in designing, organising and facilitating issue-based or skill-based training workshops with at least three years experience.	Seven Days
Inter Personal Communication	This workshop enhances the understanding of intra and inter personal effectiveness. This workshop focuses on different models of communication and gives an opportunity to assess one's communication skills.	Middle level functionaries who are interested in enhancing their communication skills and are engaged with social development processes.	Five Days
Documentation Skills	This workshop aims at enhancing the understanding of the documentation process. The workshop focus is on self assessment of one's present capacities in documentation skills and providing inputs for strengthening perspective and creativity. It gives an opportunity to learn to develop different documentations like reports, brochures, modules, small booklets and photo documentation.	Activists, youth who are engaged in documentation of social events and activities and Middle level functionaries with minimum three years experience.	Five Days

Note: Registration fee is negotiable.

Workshop Information

Abhivyakti Media For Development

Name Of The Workshop	Content	Who Can Participate In This Workshop	Duration
Transformative Leadership Skills	This workshop focuses on enhancing the conceptual understanding of 'Transformative Leadership'. It also gives an opportunity to see one's leadership strengths, knowledge , style and skills through video feedback..	Activists, youth who are engaged with social movements, organizations and Middle level functionaries with three years experience.	Three days
Theatre Of the Oppressed (TOO)	This workshop enhances the conceptual understanding of TOO. It gives inputs on the history, different types of TOO, and the skills. It also gives an opportunity to experience the TOO and pre test with the community.	Activists, students and youth who are engaged in social transformation and grass roots workers from NGOs with three years experience.	Four Days
Documentary Film Making	Focus of this workshop is to expose the medium of 'documentary film' as a form of expression and provide skills of shooting, editing and script writing with the perspective of “Development”	Activists, students and youth who are engaged in social transformation and grass roots workers from NGOs with three years experience.	Seven Days
Street Play	The workshop aims to enhance the conceptual understanding of 'Street Play'. It provides inputs on skills of use of body, voice modulations and the use of songs, sound in street play.	Activists, students and youth who are engaged in social transformation and grass roots workers from NGOs with three years experience.	Four days
Development Journalism	This workshop enhances the conceptual understanding of development journalism. It also provides inputs on components, aspects and characteristics of development journalism, critique on mass media. It also gives an opportunity for hands on experience.	Activists, students and youth who are engaged in social transformation and grass roots workers from NGOs with three years experience..	Three days

Note: Registration fee is negotiable.

Workshop Information

Abhivyakti Media For Development

Name Of The Workshop	Content	Who Can Participate In This Workshop	Duration
Personal and Professional Effectiveness for Administration and Accounts staff	Managing and coordinating organisational resources are key functions of any organisation. These include providing support to field staff, communicating within the organisation staff, liaising with outside agencies and setting up goals to be achieved in a given time frame. In order to enhance this functioning, a six day training programme is designed for middle level NGO functionaries. This workshop aims at enhancing the understanding of the role of administration and accounts as support	NGO functionaries who are engaged with project coordination and administrative work in the organisation. Youth leaders, leaders of Self Help Groups SHGs, administrative incharge of the organisations and movements.	Six days
Team Building	This workshop aims to enhance the knowledge, skills and perspective about 'Team Work'. In this workshop we provide inputs on communication processes, communication patterns, authority in the team.	Youth leaders, project leaders, team coordinators, programme leaders, trainers can participate in this workshop.	Two days
Facilitation : Media Resource Centre	The workshop provides conceptual inputs on 'Media Resource Centre' (MRC). This workshop provides knowledge and skills of MRC management and effective system to make MRC as a dialogue and learning centre the community level.	This workshop is helpful to grassroots activists, youth leaders, SHG leaders, community workers and any community member who wants to develop MRC in their community.	Two days
Creative Communication With Children	This workshop helps to develop and enhance the perspective and skills by making the communication process interesting for children. Demonstration and practice of creative communication tools is also part of this workshop. It also gives inputs on facilitation of collaborative and team games for children. It also gives inputs on initiating recreational centres for children at community level.	Activists, youth, parents, teachers who are working with children can participate in this workshop.	Three days

Note: Registration fee is negotiable.

Workshop Information

Abhivyakti Media For Development

Name Of The Workshop	Content	Who Can Participate In This Workshop	Duration
Parent Effectiveness	This workshop focuses on the conceptual understanding of conscious and social parenting. This workshop also emphasizes on communicating with children for building healthy parent child relationship.	Parents, teachers, youth leaders, women leaders, community workers who are engaged with social transformation process can be part of this	Three days
Critical Understanding Of Mass Media	This workshop enhances the conceptual understanding of Mass Media and its politics. The workshop also emphasizes on understanding its role and characteristics. It provides skills of creative and critical analysis of mass media and its messages.	Youth, adolescents, teachers, parents, community workers and children can participate in this workshop.	Three days
Organisational Development	Focus of this workshop is to strengthen the understanding about the 'Organisation' as a concept, working approach, structure, institute and as a tool to contribute in the social development process. This workshop provides tools through which one can look at an organisation critically.	Leaders and senior workers of the organisation or movement or organised group, community leaders, youth leaders can take part in this workshop.	Five Days
Sexuality Education	This workshop helps to understand the concept of 'Sexuality' and explore various ways of communicating sexuality with the community by using different media tools.	Youth, adolescents, parents, teachers, community workers, sex workers and community members who wish to generate dialogue about sexuality in the community, can be a part of this workshop	Three Days
Zero Waste Life Skill	Content of this workshop is to introduce the zero waste concept and generate discussion around it . Provide inputs about how to use various media tools to generate dialogue on this concept at community level and how to look at this concept a media form.	Community members, community workers, parents, teachers, youth, children can participate in this workshop.	Three Days

Note: Registration fee is negotiable.